MARLINTONIAN

Presented by the Class of '66
Marlinton High School

PAUL EDWARD WORKMAN
1945-1964

This book is dedicated to the memory of Paul Edward Workman, Marlinton High School graduate, honor student, and athlete, whose untimely death brought sorrow to all those who knew him.

Principal

Seniors of 1966, you are going out into a life that offers more opportunity than at any time the world has ever known. These opportunities are open to boys and girls who are willing to exert an effort to do their best. There is no place for the lazy but on relief rolls. Get all the education that you can as this is the key to the door of opportunity. Do not wait for it to knock but meet it more than half way.

In your struggle for survival do not forget to be friendly and human.

Wishing you the best,

H.A. Yeager

Our Final Show!

- We, LFT ANDERSON and RAYMOND PRYOR, will our locker No. 69 to any questionable member of the junior class.
- I, PFGGY BYFRAGE, will my position as head cheerleader to anyone who has the nerve to take it and get along better than I have with the football boys.
- I, MYRTLE LEE DAUGHERTY, will my seat in senior English to Inez Boggs in hopes that she will do better than I did. I hope she can be "out of sight" with English. Yea!
- I, LARRY DAVIS, do hereby will my love to work to John Jett.
- I, MARTHA DAVISON, will to Nicki McLaughlin my lucky letter "R" in hopes it brings her more luck than it did me.
- I, JOHN DEAN, do hereby will to Timmie Thomas all the girls of Marlington High School and hope that he will have 25 dates every Saturday night!
- We, JIM DILLEY, BOB MC COMB, and JOE SMITH, do hereby will to David Peacock, Tom Clutter and Richard Wright our abilities to create chaos and total confusion in Marlington High School and a radius of 20 miles around in the hope that they won't get caught as we usually did.
- I, RONALD DOYLE, will my ability to learn to Mr. McMann.
- I, BRENDA FRIEL, being of unsound mind, will my seat in Mr. McNeill's room to Ken Nottingham.
- I, CLARA GUM, will my senior English seat to anyone who likes to open and shut the door.
- I, MARY ANN HANNAH, will to Karen Warren my ability to stay awake at pajama parties.
- I, HELEN HEFNER, will all my errors in typing to Freda Hefner.
- I, SANDY HINDS, do hereby will my ability to like more Hillsboro boys, at one time, to Lucille Barret in hopes she will find one of them that won't "bear" her up.
- I, DALE HOLLANDSWORTH, do hereby will my unsteady nerves to the next annual editor for he or she will need them.
- I, DOLAN IRVINE, will my football locker to anyone who thinks he can keep his uniform in it without losing half of it.
- I, LINDA IRVINE, will to any student of Marlington High School locker No. 81, to anyone who can get to it, and then keep it cleaner than I did.
- I, DELORES JOHNSON, being of sound mind and beautiful body, do hereby leave "me" to all the boys. Tough luck, girls. P.S. The "Pack" challenges the Juniors to think up a better motto than us--the Class of '66. You know what it is and isn't if the TRUTH!
- I, HARRET JOHNSON, do hereby will to Sally McLaughlin and Charma Sage all the new trombone players next year so they will know what I went through this year.
- I, MARIE KELLEY, will my ability to make good chemistry grades to "Uncle Sam Brill."
- I, ALICE KELLEY, will to Mrs. Moore all the dogs I put on the bulletin board in hopes that there is a place in her heart for all of them.
- I, FERN KENNEDY, leave my name "Motor Mouth" to John Roy for he is one who needs it.

Thoughts

I, MARY ANN MUR, will my English grades to anyone who will take them, I'm sure I don't want them.

I, NINA MC ARTY, being of sound mind, will my position on the balcony to anyone who wants to be in the mid-day sun, without getting caught.

I, MC LAUGHLIN, being of warped mind, do hereby will my ability to sneak a dog into the school building (without getting caught) and disrupt Mrs. Moore's classes for a whole day to anyone who is willing to have a nervous breakdown.

I, MIKE MC MANN, will my ability to get along with Bersy to Tom Clutter.

I, ROGER MADDY, will my knowledge in history to future American History scholars. (They will need it.)

I, JAMES MARKLEY, ain't willing to will Marlinton High School nothing cause I ain't got nothing to will.

I, VIRGINIA MILLER, do hereby will my bus driver to anyone who is batry enough to accept him.

I, LANA MOORE, will my locker No. 98 to Watson Underwood and that certain football player in hopes they will remember me and all my flirting next year.

I, DIANNA PARSONS, will my ability to stay in school and get an education to Delbert Reed. I just hope he uses it.

I, KENNETH QUICK, will my seat in English class to Ivan Withers in hopes that he will pass.

I, STEVE QUICK, ain't got nothing to will the Marlinton High School except my soul and I need it.

I, DELBERT REED, will my speed to the next wingback of Marlinton High.

I, SHIRLEY REED, will my typewriter to the junkheap, because it's no good to anyone after I've used it.

I, LINDA REYNOLDS, will my luck with a certain boy to a cerrain freshman girl in the hope that she NEVER gets him.

I, JOE SHARP, will my seat in Latin class to anyone who can make better grades than I can.

I, BUTCH SMITH, will my ability as manager to anyone who can do the work and have as much fun as I had. And being of sound mind, will my big mouth to John Roy in hopes that he will get in as much trouble as I did.

I, EDGAR SMITH, will my locker and books to my brother, Gray.

I, CHERYL THOMAS, will my nicknames to anyone who wants them--Kitty, Cat, Shorty, Weasel, Kitten, and Little Girl.

I, JUDY THOMAS, do not will anything because I need everything I've got!

I, WATSON UNDERWOOD, will to Lana Moore my water jug so she can carry water to a special football player. I, JOYCE VANDEVANDER, will my seat in senior English to Barbara Curry and my seat in shorthand and typing to Gloria (Dee) Mitchell. I hope that they do better than I did.

I, RONALD VAN METER, will my ability as a credit hunter to anyone in need of it.

I, HELEN WAMSLEY, will locker No. 81 to Sharon McCloud and hope she appreciates the mess.

I, MARIAN WARE, will my books to Sarah Carr and hope she gets more out of them than I did.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

In 1965 the Junior Class presented THE BARRETT'S OF WIMPOLLE STREET, by Rudolf Besier. The play was directed by Mr. Brill and Mrs. Moore with the following cast:

Dr. Chambers	Michael McMann	Alfred Moulton-Barrett	Larry Davis
Elizabeth Barrett Moulton-Barrett	Harriet Johnson	Charles Moulton-Barrett.	David Sparks

THE BARRETT'S OF WIMPOLLE STREET gives the audience the immortal love story of Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning. Robert Browning's love gives Elizabeth the strength to leave her invalid's couch and elope to Italy with him, leaving behind her devoted brothers and sisters and her domineering, cruel father.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

In 1965 the Senior Class presented CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN. The play was directed by Mrs. Bailey with the following cast:

Mr. Gilbreth	John Dean	Lillian	Nancy Diller
Mrs. Gilbreth	Virginia Miller	Martha	Peggy Bouverag
Ernestine	Patty Rimeil	Mrs. Fitzgerald	Myrtle Daughe
Frank	Dale Hollandsworth	Dr. Burton	Joe Sharp
Jackie	Lee Anderson	Joe Scales	Bob McCormick
Dan	Edgar Smith	Miss Brill	Harriet Johnson

Taken from the book of the same name the play is based on fact. Dad is an efficiency expert, and he firmly believes that what works in the factory will work in the home. Despite his high school age daughters' interest in boys Dad pushes ahead with better organization for his large family.

There is an imperative reason for Dad's efficiency program in the home. He learns that he has a heart condition and is living on borrowed time.
